It is a responsibility we are failing to meet. According to statistics from the U.S. Department of Education, the gap in eighth-grade reading and math test scores between low-income students and their wealthier peers hasn't shrunk at all over the past 20 years.

Helping Children Succeed - What Works and Why

31% of children living in poverty are not reading at grade level by the end of third grade. This is a significant problem because children who do not read at grade level by the end of third grade are at a much higher risk of dropping out of school.
