Tolkien's rich tapestry changes with one's perspective, yielding new designs and colors from the vantage point of age and experience. However, after a reader has come to know the work intimately, it becomes fun to experience some extratextual analysis from a scholar who loves the book as much as you do! That's just what this annotated edition of The Hobbit provides.

And even though the hobbits in Tolkien's books don't really have any uncommon strength or special powers like wizards, they still manage to be the heroes of the books, making the right choices and saving Middle Earth from evil. And there's nothing wrong with celebrating JRR Tolkien Day by celebrating the little guy and the underdog.
