UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration

The golden key to law-school exam writing is applying law to facts. (Or facts to law. Whichever way you want to think about it.) This is so because applying law to facts is legal analysis. And legal analysis is what you must do on the exam. To create legal analysis, you necessarily must mix the law and the facts together in a way that produces some result. If law is blue and facts are red ...
